

First week: Pray for Believers in church

1. Ask God to help believers to establish a deep relationship with God, becoming a devout prayer, and longing to read God's Word every day, so that their lives receive God's Word for daily needs, having a healthy and normal growth.
2. Ask God to help believers be completely humble and thirsty for holiness. They become people after God's own heart, living and witnessing in holiness at schools, or workplaces, in their families and communities.
3. Ask God to use more Christians in various fields (such as education, business, media, politics, etc.) to exert influence, rather than compromising sins.
4. Ask God to lead the church be always alert, not sleeping, not complacent in self-righteousness, can always become a national warden, standing in the gap to pray for the country.
5. If the church herself is not holy, the church loses the spiritual authority to condemn the evil in the country. Ask God to help the church be more holy, use more of spiritual authority to condemn the evil in the country.

Second week: Pray for Sarawak DUN Election No.11 Year 2016

This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Reform your ways and your actions, and I will let you live in this place. Jeremiah 7: 3

1. Ask God to have mercy on Malaysia and heal the damage brought by conflicts between the Sarawakian political parties, and remove the breaking wall between the political enemies. Pray that the Lord takes control of the 2016 Sarawak election, picking up people after God's own heart to bring about Sarawak effectiveness.
2. Pray for electoral activities, that God takes away substandard violence, bribery and other unfavorable things, so that there is a clean election Sarawak.
3. We declare in the name of the Lord Jesus: Lord God Jehovah will rule the 2016 Sarawak election, government officials to seek unity in developing Sarawak; all principality and power will be called by God to become people of the kingdom of God, Amen.
4. Pray for Sarawak election rallies, that God's mighty intervention would arrest conflicts and bloodshed.

5. Ask God for granting wisdom to the voters, that those being straight, honest, righteous man of God would become public officials, so that the people can be blessed.
6. Pray that God would stretch out hands and stop all people of corruptions and bribery. Pray that money politics is rejected, and unclean election work is stopped.
7. Pray that the Sarawak people would not be cheated, nor be bribed, because greed is the root of all evil, only righteousness would bring glory to any nation.
8. Pray for new Sarawak government to be elected that they, with wisdom and righteousness, will be able to continue to gear Sarawak towards a cleaner, more efficient, more autonomous and self-reliant state. Sarawak, amidst the Malaysian dark political chaos, would shine like a beacon!

Third week: Pray for Judiciary

1. That there is clear and proper distinction between the jurisdiction of the Civil Court and Syariah Court.
2. That the judges will uphold the rights of every citizen enshrined in the Federal Constitution irrespective of race and creed or standing in society.
3. That the Civil Courts will not abdicate their jurisdiction involving legal avenues of justice available to non-Muslims.
4. That the rights of the non-Muslim spouses will be protected in cases where the other spouse converted to Islam i.e. M. Indira Gandhi case-the unilateral conversion of minors to Islam.
5. That the judges will be God-fearing and realize that they have to account to the Judge of judges for each decision they made.
6. That the judges will deliver their verdict on cases concerning apostasy and custody in accordance with the law and evidence presented before them without fear or favour and irrespective of whether the decision is popular or not.
