- New Cabinet%Pray that though they may not know the true God, they will rule the nation with a God fearing heart. Pray that God will grant these leaders wisdom, with ability to manage the nation's resources and wealth and to formulate policies to the benefits of the people.
- Federal Government%Pray that the Federal Government will work closely and effectively with the State Governments and is able to distribute funds to all states fairly and at the same time carry out development projects in all states.
- State Government and Local Government%Pray that the State Cabinet Ministers and Local Government will run the state effectively, to be righteous%honest%efficient and clean.

Week 2 Pray for the economy of the nation

Meditate on:Psa 85

- Pray for Malaysia's Finance Ministry%Pray that God will grant wisdom to the Finance Minister and the related Civil Servants while they are preparing the new budget. The people need a good policy to enhance economy growth and to contain inflation during this period of the sharp devaluation of Ringgit and high inflation.
- Pray that the Bank Negara will take appropriate measures to contain the devaluation of Ringgit and stabilise the economy.
- Pray that the Government will implement more development projects in the rural area, improve the basic infrastructure, creates employments without racial, religious, regional prejudices, so that all the people will benefit from the development.

Week 3 Pray for the media

Meditate on:Psa 7:1-11

- Pray for the Ministry of Communications and Multimedia. Asking God to use this department to control the spreading of violence, dangerous, sexual and other similar information that corrupt the mind of the people. Also pray that the person in charge of screening this information be righteous, honest and responsible.
- Pray that the media would be responsible in reporting and avoid reporting untrue, misleading superstitious and fanatic news.
- Pray for all media workers that they can enjoy freedom in their reporting and that they have the courage to report the truth without fear.

Week 4 Pray for matters relating to Islamisation

Meditate on: Jer. 29:13-14

- Pray for all the people, especially for the Sarawakians, Chinese and indigenous people alike, that they will not be lured by material or monetary benefits and be converted to Muslims. Pray that they fully understand the effect and consequence for doing so. Pray for the Christians, especially the indigenous group Christians to hold firm to their faith.
- Pray that our Lord will keep churches of all denominations in Sarawak united against Islamisation. Pray that these Churches will unite in spreading the gospels and building God's church.

- Pray that our Lord will grant wisdom and power to all churches so that the churches have the ability to defend against Islamisation and to spread the gospels to non-believers. The Christians are able to show Christ's love in their workplace and everyday life so that non-believers will get to know Christ too.
